

UPSTAIRS DOWNSTAIRS
Episode Guide
compiled by Jerry Kohl <pnm@u.washington.edu>
July, 1994

This guide lists all 68 episodes of Upstairs Downstairs, with their original ITV (London) transmission dates. The 13 so-called "lost" episodes that were omitted from the American version shown on Masterpiece Theatre are marked with asterisks.

The first two series gave a date with each title, as did the sixth series. Title dates for series 3-5, added in brackets, are deduced from the episode content (except for the year of Season 4, episode 9, which is from the programme listing in the Times). There is a problem, however, with the dates given for series 2. The script of 3:3 places it in 1908 instead of 1909, and continuity requires this to be the case, given the date of the death of Edward VII. The discrepancy cannot be explained by a "fold-back" in the story line, since season three begins with the return from honeymoon of Elizabeth and her new husband, who were married in 2:7 (dated June 1909). In order to accept the series 3 sequence as scripted, it becomes necessary to regard the year given for at least the last two episodes of season 2 (in which Elizabeth meets and later marries Laurence) as erroneous, and some of the preceding episodes as either out of chronological order or incorrectly dated. The "fold-back" between the end of series 1 (October 1906) and the beginning of series 2 (Summer 1906) may have been part of the cause for the later continuity problem.

All transmissions were scheduled for one-hour periods, except as noted (Series 4 episode 13, and Series 6 episode 13).
